Section 4 Monitoring and Evaluation

The Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) of your project is important for you to assess that your project is achieving what it set out to do.

It also provides evidence of your success for you to use in your future funding applications. Young Barnet Foundation uses your M&E reports in the following ways:

- To ensure that we're investing in organisations and projects that are making a clear and positive difference to young people in Barnet
- As evidence to help attract more funding into the Space 2 Grow fund.

We will ask you to collect the following quantitative information:

- Total number of sessions held
- Total cumulative number of attendees at the project (attendees per session x number of sessions held)
- Total number of unique participants
- The age range of participants Total cumulative number of contact hours (total no of attendees x session length)
- The split of male and female participants (approx. %)

We will also ask the following:

- We will ask you to outline in less than 100 words the key achievement of the project
- We will ask for a quote from one participant
- We will also for a quote from one session leader
- A short anonymous case study on one young person
- To submit at least one photo of your project (with relevant permission of any young people shown in shot or sufficiently anonymised)

You will be asked to submit the information online no later than the 30days from the completion of the project.
